

Shalom,

All our services are good if the Lord shows up with his presences, and thankfully He does. Friday night 13 men on a hiking trip with Bro. Yoni (the tour guide) got together in a bomb shelter for a service with us. It was a little different but ok, the Lord was exalted.

Saturday night in the apartment we felt like some very deep needs were met as victory over daily struggles were discussed. You could feel the presences of the Lord. He enjoys and deserves the center of attention, and we want to give it to him.

We are enclosing some more pictures.

Yours in Christ,
Brother and Sister Parker
