RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD - SPIRITUAL

PHYSICAL DEATH

Most of us will die in the natural before we become spiritually mature, or in other words... completely resurrected from the spiritual death in which we were born.

- Some die WITHOUT ever believing into Jesus Christ and receiving life from Him:

LUK 13:1-5

- Some die having JUST BEGUN as spiritual new-born babes without much development:

1 PE 2:2

- Some die as spiritual LITTLE CHILDREN who still sin periodically:

1 JO 2:1,2

- Some die as spiritual YOUNG ADULTS who have overcome themselves and completely resurrected from spiritual death:

GAL 2:20

- And a few die having reached full spiritual maturity in this physical flesh as did Jesus and the apostles:

ROM 8:37

AT WHATEVER TIME WE DIE... GOD IS THERE!

MAT 10:29-31

RESURRECTION TO NATURAL LIFE

Some people have been resurrected from natural death back to natural life. These individuals continued to fulfill their natural life span and the purpose that God had resurrected them for, then died again. Physical death of God's children does not hinder God in any way.

ETERNAL JUDGMENT - OVERVIEW

God, who is eternal, has ALREADY set judgments for mankind. These are eternal judgments in three categories:

The FIRST CATEGORY: RIGHTEOUS or JUST = the majority of believers who have not completely overcome, but are found RIGHTEOUS or JUST in the final judgment: They must finish overcoming in the new earth.

LUK 14:14
MAT 10:22
MAT 5:5

Those who finish overcoming in this life, are really not a separate category of judgment, because those saints who overcome, COMPLETE their judgment under the RIGHTEOUS or JUST category and become ONE WITH THE JUDGE.

They will be JUDGING in the throne with Jesus, because they were the FIRSTFRUITS, or the first of the Righteous/Just to mature into Christ:

The SECOND CATEGORY: SINNER = those believers who are found unjust or unrighteous in the final judgment. These are the self-pleasing, disobedient, unruly, hypocrites, etc. who left God's ways for their own:

ETERNAL JUDGMENT OF THE RIGHTEOUS

The words "RIGHTEOUS" and "JUST" in the New Testament mean exactly the same thing. Both come from one Greek word, δικαιος (dikaios) meaning: "conformed to right, or law". (Strong's word # 1342)

Both words in the Old Testament also come from one Hebrew word, qydu (tzaddeek) meaning: "just, lawful, righteous". (Strong's word # 6662)

HOWEVER, there are TWO KINDS of righteousness: ONE, the product of the law, which never produced the righteousness of God:

ROM 10:5
ROM 3:10
GAL 2:21
MAT 5:20

...and TWO, the product of faith connecting man to a loving God. This allows God, through His Spirit, to produce his own righteousness within and through us:

UNJUST (NOT JUST, NOT RIGHTEOUS)

Because the “ungodly” do NOT resurrect for another judgment....

ISA 26:14

...and the “unjust” WILL resurrect:

...and the “unjust” are not the “just”, the UNJUST is just another description of the SINNER. There is no such thing as a just or righteous sinner, except a self-righteous, or self-justifying sinner:

LUK 16:15

ETERNAL JUDGMENT OF THE SINNER

In the New Testament, the word “sinner” comes from the Greek word, αμαρτωλος (ham-ar-to-los') meaning: “UN-MARKer, or one who misses the mark”. (Strong's word # 268)

In the Old Testament, the word “sinner” comes from, ajh (khaw-taw') meaning: “misser, faulter, offender, sinner, trespasser”. (Strong's word # 2398)

A SINNER is one who knows to do good and aims, but misses the mark:

They abide in the spiritual death that Adam passed on to them. Most of them automatically believe what the serpent said about it rather than what God said. The seeds of that fruit are still in their minds. Most believe that their souls are immortal, and that they will not utterly perish.*
